Broadway National Will Succeed Commonwealth's 102 East Broad Street Branch.

FORCE REMAINS UNCHANGED

Clerks Now Employed Will Be Retained After Transfer by New Management.

H. N. Phillips, of Williamsburg, newly elected president of the Broadway National Bank, will arrive in the city Thursday to direct the organization of the office force of the new institution. The Broadway National, as previously announced, will take over the business of the Commonwealth Bank's 102 East Broad Street branch. A charter for the new bank has already been granted by the Comptroller of the Currency, and the institution, it is expected, will begin operations with a $2,000 surplus. Stockholders will meet next Friday to elect a board of directors and these will name the officers.

While no tentative list of officers and directors has been announced, it is stated that the directorate will be made up largely of Richmond men drawn from prominent banking and commercial institutions. It is probable that some of the directors of the Commonwealth Bank will be elected to the directorate of the new institution, but it was stated emphatically yeaterday by President W. L. Walters, of the Commonwealth, that the two banks will be under distinct and independent ownership and management.

Will Retain Present Force.
